

BIHAR NATIONAL PARK

MAKE MY PLAN

Let's make it easy for you']

Valmiki National park

Bihar has one national parks Valmiki National park

Valmiki National Park, Tiger Reserve , and Wildlife sanctuary is located in the West champaran District of Bihar . this national parks situated in Sewalik Himalayas and ganga basin on the Bank Gandak River and Masan River

Valmiki National park established as a national park in the year 1990 , It was declared a Wildlife sanctuary in 1978 . Total area of Wildlife sanctuary and National is about $545+347 = 892$ square kilometers .

Valmiki national park is a Tiger Reserve of India. This national declared as tiger reserves 18th number of our nation in the Year 1994. Valmiki national park is very beautiful places of Bihar , There are one city / town Valmiki Nager situated here , the name valmiki national park come from Name of town valmiki nager .valmiki nager, valmiki nager is important for religious purpose. the district Champaran is historical place , there is a historical movement , the name Champaran has special meaning champa is a one kind of trees .

Valmiki national park is located near India - Nepal International border , in Nepal Royal Chiwan National park is located with Valmiki national park or Tiger reserve

This national park is various type of flora and fauna

Valmiki national Park are moist Sal bearing forests, dry sal bearing forests, moist mixed deciduous forests without Sal, cane and tropical seasonal swamp forests containing reed beds and wet grasslands

Valmiki Tiger Reserve found leopards, cats, deer, black bucks, Wolves, deer, Sloth bears, Nilgiri, cheetah, Jungle cats etc