

UTTARAKHNAD MONUMENTS

MAKE MY PLAN

Let's make it easy for you

Shruti

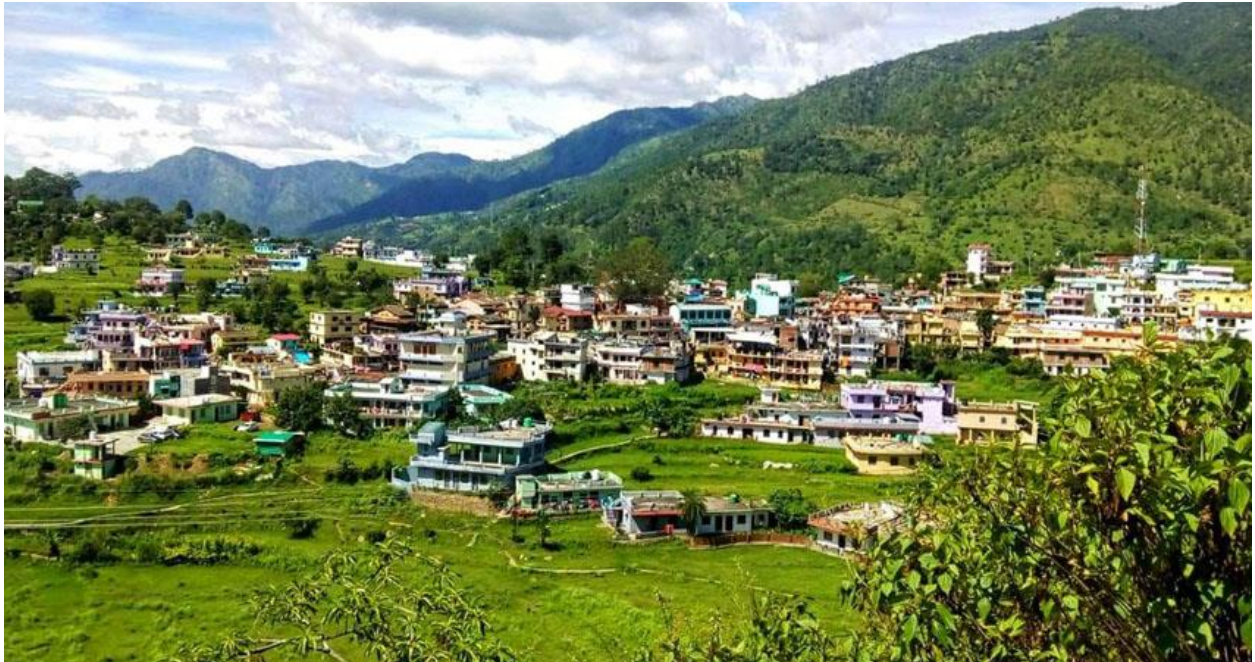

Katarmal Sun Temple:

The Katarmal Sun Temple is located in Katarmal village of Uttarakhand is perched at a height of 2,116 metres above the sea level. It is the second most beautiful temple in India that is dedicated to Hindu God Sun. The temple was built in the 9th century by a Katyuri ruler, Katarmalla, who ruled the region. Apart from the main temple, there are 45 more shrines here that are dedicated to Lord Shiva, his wife Goddess Parvati, Lakshman, and Narayan. The shrine looks one of a kind when it receives the first rays of the Sun.

Best time to visit: November to February

Dwarahat:

Dwarahat, located at a height of 2000 meters in the Kumaon Mountains, is one of the historical places in Uttarakhand. Known for its religious importance, Dwarahat has around 55 odd temples that were constructed by the Katyuri Kings during the medieval period. Apart from temples, Dwarahat is also a place where tourists can rejuvenate themselves and get some peace of mind.

Best time to visit: Anytime of the year, except the monsoons (August and September)

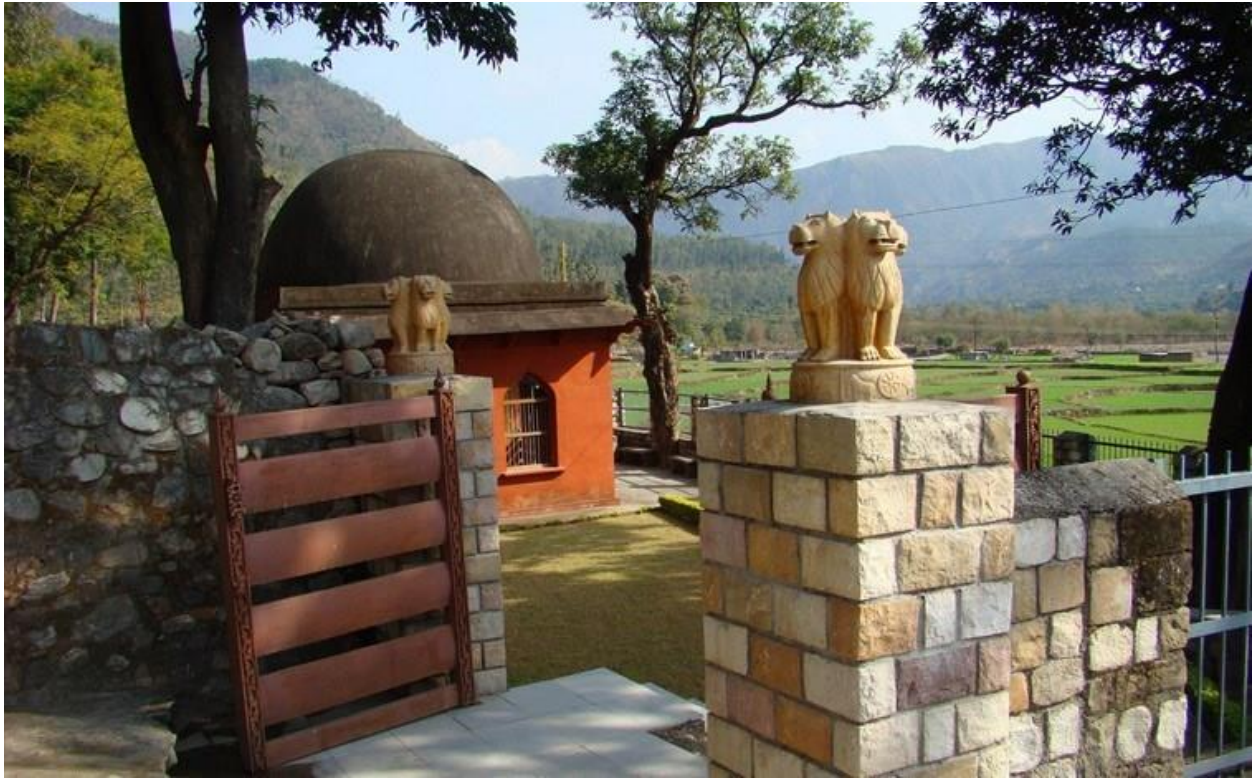

Patal Bhuvaneshwar Cave:

Patal Bhuvaneshwar Cave is located in Bhubneshwar village in Uttarakhand. There is not only one cave but a series of caves that starts with Patal Bhuvaneshwar Cave. From the point of entrance, the limestone cave is 160 m long and 90 feet deep. There is a temple of Lord Shiva along with 33 other types of deities in the cave. The cave was initially discovered by Raja Ritupurna, who was a king in Surya Dynasty. He ruled Ayodhya during the Treta Yuga.

Best time to visit: October to March

Kalsi

Kalsi is a small village in Uttarakhand which is popular for its historical significance. Two of its attractions which are admired by history buffs are Timpli Pass and The Ashokan Rock Edict. At The Ashokan Rock Edict, you can see a pear-shaped quartz rock on which King Ashoka's fourteenth edict is inscribed in Pali language and the Brahmi script. It dates back to 253 BC. Timpli Pass is the place where the battle between the British and the Gorkhas took place.

The historical places in Uttarakhand are evidence of the heritage and grandeur of the empire that have risen and fallen in this beautiful land. The best time to travel Uttarakhand is during the winters, and these road trips are sure to make you feel rejuvenated nestled in the lush flora on the hills. To choose a ride that is dependable and suitable for the terrain of this area, you can rent a car from Revv in Uttarakhand and free your mind from the woes of driving.