

PUNJAB MONUMENTS

MAKE MY PLAN

Let's make it easy for you.

Jallianwala Bagh:

A popular patriotic historical place in Punjab, Jallianwala Bagh is located at a very close proximity to the Golden Temple. When you visit Jallianwala Bagh, you can still find the well in which thousands of people jumped in to save themselves from the firing that was opened by the Army of General Dyer in 1919. You can also see the blood stains and marks of bullets on the walls in the garden.

Timings: 6:30 am to 7:30 pm

Guru ka Mahal:

Guru Ke Mahal was established in 1573 by Guru Ram Das, the fourth Sikh guru. Back then it was a little cottage that sheltered the great gurus of the Sikhs. You can still find the Granth Sahib in Guru Ke Mahal.

Timing: 5 am to 10 pm

Sheesh Mahal:

Palace of Mirrors was constructed in the 19th century. It is a part of the Old Moti Bagh Palace. You can still witness various frescos, which were made during the period of Maharaja Narinder Singh.
Timing: 10 am to 5 pm (Tuesday to Friday) and 10 am to 9 pm (Saturday and Sunday); Monday remains closed
