

Temples In Maharashtra That You Must Visit

1. Shirdi Temple

Located approximately 258 km from Mumbai, shirdi sai baba temple maharashtra is one of the most popular temples here. Known for being the Land of Sai, Shirdi attracts thousands of devotees every year because of the Shirdi Temple. This temple is dedicated to Sai Baba who is considered to be one of the greatest saints in the country. After visiting Shirdi at the age of 16 years, Sai Baba stayed at this village where he attained Samadhi as well. Spread across 200 square meters, the temple complex today consists of Chavadi, Samadhi Mandir, Gurusthan, Lendi Baug and more.

Location: Mauli Nagar, Shirdi, Maharashtra 423109

2. Grishneshwar Jyotirlinga Temple

Located in Aurangabad district of Maharashtra, Grishneshwar Jyotirlinga Temple is one of the most popular temples in Maharashtra. Being dedicated to Lord Shiva, this temple is home to one of the jyotirlingas mentioned in the Shiva Purana. Believed to be the 12th jyotirlinga, Shiva at this temple is known by different names such as Kusumeswarar, Ghushmeswara, Ghrushmeswara and Grishneswara. The temple went through several reconstructions during the reign of Maloji Raje Bhosale and Rani Ahilyabhai Holkar. Built with red volcanic rock, this temple is often recognized for its fine medieval architecture and 5-tier Shikara. Today the temple contains a garbhagriha, an antarala and a sabha mandapa. Many devotees visit this temple during the Maha Shivaratri which is a significantly important religious festival at this jyotirling temple in maharashtra.

Location: Verul, Maharashtra 431102

3. Yamai Devi Temple

Being one of the most visited temples in maharashtra, Yamai Devi Temple at Aundh is dedicated to Yamai Devi. The black stone-made statue of Devi Mahishasur Mardini at this temple is considered as the family deity by many in Maharashtra. The idol here stands adorned with arrow, trishul, paan patra, and gada. Associated with the Pant family, this temple also unravel the opportunity for you to experience the collections of Aundh prices at the Sri Bhavani Museum. Most of the devotees come here during the annual Yatra which happens during the Paush Purnima.

Location: Aundh, Maharashtra 415510

4. Moreshwar Temple

Being one of the ganesh temples in maharashtra, Moreshwar Temple in Pune is dedicated to Lord Ganesha. Known for being the first temple among the Ashta Vinayak temples of Lord Ganesha, this temple is one of the most popular pilgrimages in Maharashtra. Ganapatya saint Morya Gosavi is known to have played a significant role in the construction of this temple. Made with black stone, this temple is adorned with four minarets and 50 feet tall wall. You will also find other deities such as Lord Shiva, Lord Vishnu, Lord Rama, Lord Vignasha, etc. here. Containing 23 Lord Ganesha idols, this temple is a must visit during your trip to Maharashtra.

Location: Shree Moreshwar Temple, Morgaon, Pune, Maharashtra

5. Trimbakeshwar Jyotirlinga

Located in Nashik, Trimbakeshwar Jyotirlinga temple in maharashtra is dedicated to Lord Shiva. Built by Peshwa Balaji Baji Rao, this temple is home to the Kushavarta which is known for being the source of the Godavari river. Surrounded by the lush greenery of the Anjaneri Mountain, this temple has three lingams of Shiva, Vishnu, and Brahma. You will also find three water bodies here i.e. Bilva Theertha, Viswananthirtha and Mukundathirtha. Being one of the best temples in maharashtra, the Jyotirlinga here depicts three faces i.e. Lord Brahma, Lord Vishnu, and Lord Rudra. The jeweled crown that covers the lingas is displayed in between 4 pm and 5 pm on every Monday. This crown is believed to exist from the age of Pandavas.

Location: Shrimant Peshwa Path, Trimbak, Maharashtra 422212