

5 Most Popular Temples In Sikkim

1. Hanuman Tok

Hanuman Tok is a marvellously built temple on the highlands of Gangtok, the capital of Sikkim. It is believed to be dedicated to the hindu god, Lord Hanuman. The shrine commonly known to be one of the wishes fulfilling sikkim temples is managed by the Indian Army. Its serene ambience and splendid panoramic view of Kanchenjunga mountain range is a treat to sore eyes. While visiting the prosperous place, one could also look for the famous tourist attraction nearby, Nathula.

Location: Gangtok, Sikkim 737103

Timings: 6.00am to 7.00pm

2. Thakurbari Temple

Thakurbari Temple is an ancient temple in Sikkim, located in the heart of the town. It is dedicated to enormous major deities of the hindu culture in Gangtok. The spiritual ritual of Chhath Puja is celebrated lavishly by the temple committee and locals. It is said to be a renowned Hindu festival dedicated to the Sun god, Lord shiva. During the months of November, February, March, and June, precious light and sound show is organized at late hours amusing all. It is surely the best time to visit the ancient temple in the Indian state of Sikkim.

Location: MG Marg, Arithang, Gangtok, Sikkim 737101

Timings: 6.00am to 8.00pm

3. Kirateshwar Mahadev Mandir

The Kirateshwar Mahadev Mandir is one of the historical temples of Sikkim, located in the Legship. It is also as Shiv temple by the Kirati people of the state. The renowned religious destination is dedicated to the Lord Kirateshwar, beautiful incarnation of Lord shiva as a hunter. Travellers flock in large numbers to the pilgrimage during the months of November to December to lavishly celebrate Bala Chaturdashi and Shiv Ratri in February or March, every year. If you are seeking to experience it all, plan an excursion to Sikkim accordingly.

Location: Legship, Sikkim 737111

Timings: 7.00am to 9.00pm

4. Ganesh Tok

Located on a hill in Gangtok, Ganesh tok is one of the renowned temples of Sikkim. The small temple is commonly known to be dedicated to the Hindu god, Lord Ganesha. It is a surreal place well decorated with multicolored prayer patakas resembling rainbow, becoming the trademark of the religious pilgrimage. Despite the tiny structure, it offers circular balcony and a lounge with panoramic picturesque views of Tashi hill. Thus, one must experience the astounding scenic beauty and divinity of the place.

Location: Gangtok, Sikkim 737103

Timings: 6.00am to 7.00pm

5. Shirdi Sai Mandir

Located in the state of Sikkim in Namchi, Shri Sai Baba Mandir is a popular hindu temple dedicated to Lord Vishnu. The structure has a two storied golden colored building shining in the daylight. The modern marvel has been taken to a notch by the large statue of Shri Shirdi Sai Baba. One must walkway around, adoring spectacular interiors, unique religious scriptures, and glorious statues. The Sikkim temples providing spiritual solace neer fails to amaze anyone.

Location: Agam Gram, Namchi, Sikkim 737126

Timings: 6.00am to 8.00pm